

469-000-207 SSI FEDERAL BENEFIT RATES: The SSI Federal Benefit Rate is the maximum amount payable to an individual based on living arrangement with no other income. Following are the FBRs, effective January 1, 2015, that will be used by N-FOCUS to calculate the AABD grants. They will be entered by either the SDX Interface or by the worker if there is no SDX interface.

| | |
|------------|---|
| $733.00 | Single individual in own household |
| | Disabled child living in parent(s) household |
| | Married individual and ineligible spouse in own household – deemed income less than $367.00 |
| $488.67 | Single individual living in the household of another with unearned income type, 'One-Third Reduction'. |
| | Married individual and ineligible spouse living in the household of another – zero deemed income and unearned income type 'One-Third Reduction'. |
| | Disabled child and parent(s) all living in the household of another income type 'One-Third Reduction'. |
| $733.34 | Married individual and ineligible spouse living in the household of another – deemed income greater than $367.00 and unearned income type 'One-Third Reduction'. |
| $1,100.00 | Married individual with ineligible spouse and deemed income greater than $367.00. |
| $550.00 | Married both eligible in own household. |
| $366.67 | Married both eligible in household of another – both with unearned income type 'One-Third Reduction'. |
| $30.00 | Single individual in institution |
| $60.00 | Married both eligible and both in an institution |

Questions should be sent to the DHHS Economic Assistance Policy Questions e-mail address.

A copy of this memo is stored in the Economic Assistance Policy Log.